

RUSSIANS RETREAT BUT FRENCH ARE VISIT GAINING WEST FIRST TRIP OF YEAR

AUSTRO-GERMANS FIRMLY ESTABLISHED IN LEMBERG WITH FIRE SET BY THE RUSSIANS STILL BURNING—FIGHTING ON DNIESTER NOT YET OVER.

CZAR'S TROOPS OUT OF GALICIA BOY SCOUT BAND LEADS

It is Expected That the Weight of the Teutonic Forces Released in That Theatre Must Soon Be Felt Somewhere, but Where is Yet to Develop.

London, June 24.—The Russians are still retreating in the east; the French are slowly gaining at certain points on the western front.

With the fires set by the retreating Russians still burning, the Austro-Germans are now firmly established at Lemberg and have shown no sign of ceasing their offensive.

The battle of the Dniester south of the city is not yet over, but according to Berlin, General Linsingen has been able to throw his forces across the river, a fact which some quarters believe presages another Russian defeat.

With Galicia all but cleared of Russians, the weight of Austro-German forces released in that theater must soon be felt somewhere, but opinions are divided as to whether it will be the western front or in Poland.

One theory is that the Germans will launch against Warsaw another terrific attack, similar to their drive in Galicia. This coincides with the belief that it is the Austro-German plan to batter Russia more before turning west.

Opposed to this are reports that troops from Galicia are already turning westward and that Germany plans a fresh campaign along the Belgian coast.

Lemberg is celebrating the return of the Austrians and Vienna hasn't yet ceased her revelry. Petrograd meanwhile continues to depreciate the military importance of the achievement, professing confidence that it will have no bearing on the ultimate outcome of the war.

The first day of David Lloyd George's appeal for munition workers seems to indicate an adequate number is being enrolled. The whole country is now in the throes of a recruiting campaign more intense than any previous appeal for fighters at the front.

French Official Statement.

Paris, June 24.—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight: "On the northern bank there have been no infantry actions today. Our troops have organized themselves in the conquered positions. A lively cannonade occurred in the sector of Angrie-Ecuire."

"The enemy last night and today very violently bombarded Berry Au Bac, and the neighborhood of Sapigneul. This bombardment caused us only insignificant losses."

"In the Argonne and on the heights of the Meuse, there is nothing except artillery actions."

"In the Vosges at Fontenelle, a German attack was repulsed."

"The Germans have bombarded the outskirts of Metz and the ridges east of the village, where our progress has continued to a slight degree."

Austrian Official Statement.

Vienna, via London, June 24.—The following official communication was issued today: "The general situation in eastern Galicia is unchanged."

"On the northern bank of the Dniester, between the Vistula and the San, the enemy continued to retreat. North of the Vistula, the Russian rear guards were driven beyond the Kamienka river. Our troops occupied Ostrowiec and Sandomierz."

"In the Italian war theatre, on the Carinthian frontier, a strong attack of Italian troops near Pavia (east of Ploceen Pass) was repulsed."

Cornertown Missouri Capital Laid.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 24.—A two-ton cornertown for the Missouri state capital, which is being built at a cost of $4,000,000, was laid here today in the presence of thousands of visitors from all parts of the state.

SUMMARY OF WAR

Petrograd seems to be in no wise discouraged over the enforced retirement of the Russian troops from Lemberg, the capture of which by the Teutonic allies is being celebrated by great rejoicing throughout Austria and Germany. Nevertheless, the Russian army is still in retreat so far as advances from the Lemberg district indicate, although strong Russian rear guards vigorously are opposing a further Austro-German advance.

Further south along the Dniester river another Russian army is fighting desperately to prevent the Austrians and Germans from breaking through. The German General Linsingen, Berlin reports, has succeeded in crossing the river, which that capital cannot be stayed. But it is pointed out from Petrograd that at only one place on the entire length of the Dniester have the Austro-Germans managed to establish themselves with any permanency on the right bank.

Vienna says the Russians are retreating on the Dniester between the Vistula and the San, and that north of the Vistula the Russian rear guards were driven beyond the Kamienka river. The Austrians occupying Ostrowiec and Sandomierz in Poland near the Galician border.

THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL PICNIC IN NEIGHBORING COUNTY IS MECCA FOR 175 WACOANS WHO ADVERTISE 1915 COTTON PALACE IN THOROUGH FASHION.

Special Train Makes Stop at Gatesville En Route—Invitations Extended to Come to This Year's Exposition and to Reunion of Old Settlers' Association Here Next Month.

Tired, but happy, 175 Wacoans returned on a special train from Hamilton at 11 o'clock last night, making the first of the Y. M. B. L. trips for 1915. Leaving Waco at 7:15 yesterday morning, the party arrived at Hamilton at 11:30, remaining until 6:35 last night. The Thirty-second annual picnic of Hamilton and vicinity was the occasion that drew the Waco boosters to the Hamilton county capital and the Waco Cotton Palace was the feature around which the boosting efforts of the excursionists centered.

Fun unimpaired with any false dignity was the rule on the special train that carried the Waco crowd to Hamilton and back again. The excursionists staged impromptu parades and sang the Waco song wherever the train stopped, and the Boy Scouts' band furnished music.

The Waco bunch had things about their own way after the train arrived at Hamilton. Headed by the Boy Scouts' band, the paraders in two lines filed around the public square, disbanding for dinner. The picnic grounds east of the city were soon alive with the Waco men, wearing the famous red hats of the Cotton Palace, and decorated with numerous souvenirs that had been distributed on the train by Waco business men.

Invited to Waco.

The program of the picnic yesterday afternoon included an old settlers' day, a feature which drew many of the Waco party. Addresses were made by Hon. E. E. Chelsey of Hamilton, G. H. Goodson, Joe Sappington, J. W. Bascom, followed by a rendition of the "Cow House Waltz" on the violin by Col. W. P. Neal, danced in true fashion by Col. John L. Spurlin and Capt. E. C. Horton. Col. W. A. Poage extended an invitation to all old settlers present to attend the reunion of the McLennan county Old Settlers' association which will be held here next month.

A ball game yesterday afternoon, which was won by Hamilton from Conanche 10 to 0, and a band concert and midway attractions last night wound up the 1915 picnic.

"North of the city, 17 persons who boarded the train at Waco, the special picked up passengers at every station, and was carrying about 300 when Hamilton was reached. Two other special trains arrived in Hamilton yesterday, and with the throngs that came in from the surrounding country by automobile and carriage and on the regular trains, the largest crowd has ever attended the picnic was recorded. Visitors everywhere met with a hearty welcome from the citizens of Hamilton. Waco visitors especially cordial relations which exist between the two cities as the result of the activities of the Y. M. B. L. and the Cotton Palace. Hamilton's welcome to Waco is expressed in the Hamilton Record, copies of which were presented to the excursionists on their arrival."

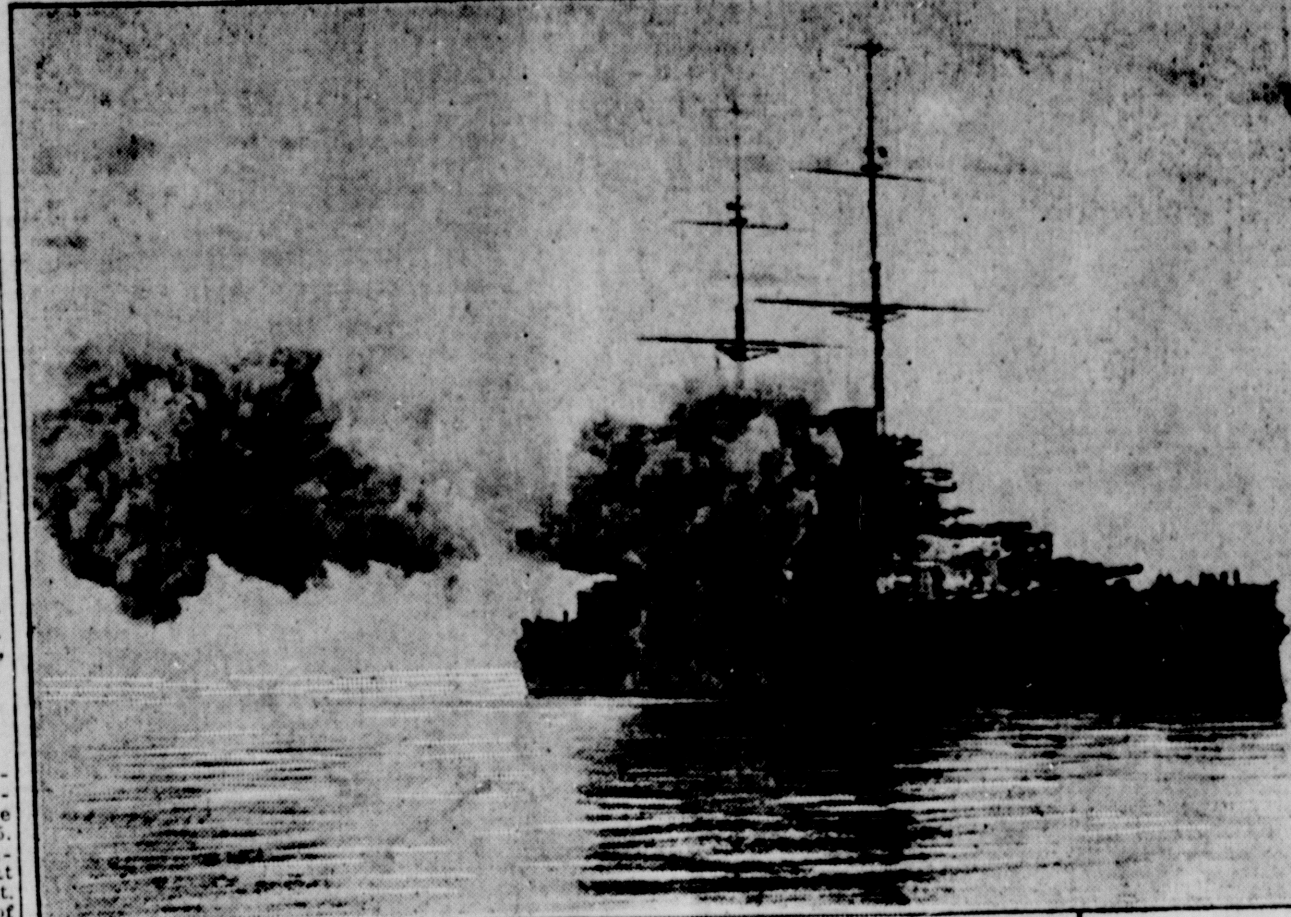

"Among our guests of today are the members of the Waco Young Men's B. L. League, who, he it said to Hamilton's everlasting credit, have been our guests on former occasions, and come gladly again today to, for the time being, mingle in good fellowship with our people and accept of the hospitality so cordially extended. This league is composed of the very flower of Waco's citizenship, full of young blood, virility, business acumen and prophetic aggressiveness. These men have been the dynamic force back of the building of that greater Waco of today. Their presence in Hamilton is helpful, inspiring, and our citizens are proud to have them here. It is friendship which, as incense on the altar, is sweeter than attar of roses."

Large Crowd at Gatesville.

At Gatesville a large crowd was present when the special train arrived. The band piled out onto the platform and played the Waco style song, which was sung lustily by the 200 voices of the Waco party. A large ice box in the baggage car was opened for the refreshments.

Jury Must Get in Bath Tub Before Verdict is Rendered

London, June 24.—A bath tub reposed on the sidewalk in Old Bailey today, while the prosecution described the death of Beatrice Mundy, one of the three wives of George Joseph Smith, who stands indicted on the charge of having murdered them all to obtain their property in the Brides in Bath murders.

It is the crown's contention that Smith drowned them in defense of his property. The jury must get in the bath tub for a practical demonstration.

"When the bath tub is removed to your private quarters," remarked the judge, "you can put one of yourselves in it—select some jurymen about the size of the woman."

Accordingly, before the trial is concluded, it will be necessary for some jurymen to perform this service.

Dr. F. A. French related how the defendant in July, 1912, then masquerading under the name of Williams, called on him shortly before Beatrice Mundy's death. He desired that she be charged with having murdered them all to obtain their property in the Brides in Bath murders.

Three days later Smith summoned him by note saying, "Come at once. I am afraid my wife is dead." The doctor hurried to the house and found the woman dead in the bathtub. Death was due, he testified, to suffocation.

A lawyer testifying for the prosecution, told how Smith had sought him before the woman's death and arranged their wills, whereby everything each owned would go to the other in case of death.

Harrison Line Strike is Declared at End

Mount Vernon, Ill., June 24.—The forty-four months' strike of shophmen of the Harrison, Illinois Central and Pere Marquette railroad lines has been declared officially at an end at 10 o'clock on the morning of June 25, 1915, by the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

Announcement of termination of the strike is made in a circular letter from the railroad employees' department of the American Federation of Labor received by union officials here. All unions concerned have ratified the action, it was said here, except the boilermakers and blacksmiths. The terms of the settlement are not mentioned.

Turks to Aid the Senussi Tribesmen Against Italians

Rome, via Paris, June 24.—Reports received by officials of the government indicate that Turkey, with the support of her allies, planned to give assistance to the Senussi tribesmen in their uprising against the Italians in Libya. The purpose of this movement is said to have been to compel Italy to keep a large number of troops engaged in northern Africa. This purpose was not achieved, however, the Italian government having withdrawn its military posts in the interior. In consequence, Italy now requires a smaller force than heretofore in Libya.

Germans Hope Long Trip of Submarines Will Scare the U. S.

London, June 24.—The Hague correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company says an article published by the Neueste Nachrichten of Munich comments on the voyage of a German submarine from Wilhelmshaven to the Dardanelles. This paper points out that the distance from Bremen to New York is only 3,600 miles and expresses the hope that this submarine exploit "will make the war party in the United States think twice."

Two Arraigned in Whiskey Fraud Cases

Fort Smith, Ark., June 24.—Two of the twelve men indicted by the United States grand jury here today in connection with the alleged defrauding of the government by the manufacture of whiskey on which no tax was paid were arraigned late today and pleaded not guilty. They were J. B. Brown, Harrison, Ark., and Newton C. Sorrelling, Aurora, Mo., former gaugers in the Kansas City distillery of G. C. Brubaker, who also was indicted. Brown and Sorrelling are charged with having conspired to defraud the government by selling moonshine whiskey.

Five indictments were returned today. Interest centered in charges against John L. Casper and Guy L. Hartman, both of Kansas City, and Knox Booth, former internal revenue agent. Casper and Hartman are charged with bribery. The indictment alleges each offered Booth $1,500 to alter an internal revenue tax of $47,500 on 50,000 gallons of whiskey during last December and January. Booth is charged with accepting the alleged bribe.

Oct. 15 was set as a tentative date for the trial of the men now in custody.

Roscoe Hornbaker Found Not Guilty

Paola, Kan., June 24.—Roscoe Hornbaker is not guilty of killing George McElhenry, postmaster of Louisville, Kan., a jury decided late today.

The postmaster was slain Oct. 4, 1912. Hornbaker, a rural mail carrier, was charged by Mrs. Maud McElhenry, the widow, with having a strange power over her. The widow was the principal witness for the state. Hornbaker denied her story.

EIGHT ARE KILLED IN HEAD ON COLLISION

AT GETTYSBURG, PA., TRAINS MEET ON BRIDGE TWO HUNDRED FEET HIGH.

Twelve or Fourteen Are Injured. Engines Telescoped—Three Members of Crew Dead.

Gettysburg, June 24.—Eight persons are known to have been killed, and from twelve to fourteen injured in a head-on collision between the Blue Mountain Special and a local train on the Western Maryland railroad near the Mason and Dixon line, tonight. The trains met on a bridge spanning a deep ravine between Highfield and Thurmont.

A mistake or misunderstanding of orders is believed to have been the cause. The fast express was going almost sixty miles an hour when it struck the local train on the bridge. The engines were telescoped, three members of the engine crews and a baggage-master being killed.

Thirteen dead are: Charles Cook, engineer of the accommodation train; Charles R. Fritz, fireman; Luther Hall, baggage-man; Mrs. Chichease, of Baltimore, and her son.

A baggage car apparently was the only one that left the bridge, but one of the parlor cars was suspended over the side. All the cars of the special train were of steel construction.

The private car of H. S. Gray, containing a number of officials of the Western Maryland was on the train, but none of the officials were killed.

The bridge on which the accident occurred is 200 feet high.

Good Prospects of German Reply Being What U. S. Desires

Berlin, June 24.—There are good prospects that the forthcoming German note to the United States will go a long way toward meeting the American government's wishes regarding Germany's conduct of submarine warfare and making passenger traffic on the high seas safe.

While it is stated submarine action against hostile merchantmen and goods can not be abandoned entirely, it is increasingly probable the German note will embody some proposals to exempt ships employed wholly or principally in passenger traffic from submarine attack.

Such ships, it is said, would of course, be subject to stoppage and examination by submarines in accordance with the practice in vogue prior to the present war, and to capture if carrying contraband, but the regular rules of the prize law, particularly regarding the safety of passengers and crews would be observed.

It is hoped here such a solution will satisfy the requirements of President Wilson's note. It is hoped and expected here among those who are working for a friendly settlement of the situation between Germany and the United States that the United States would see that such passenger ships were not used to transport ammunition and goods surrounding the fire in which Mrs. Allen lost her life Sunday morning.

ENGLAND SAYS NO GROUNDS FOR COMPLAINT BY U. S.

In Memorandum Recites at Length Its Efforts to Minimize Inconveniences to Neutral Commerce Resulting From the Order-in-Council Which Seeks to Regulate Commerce on the High Seas.

NO ATTEMPT TO ANSWER PRINCIPLES

In Transmitting Note Ambassador Page Says Merely "An Explanation of Concrete Cases and the Regulations Under Which They Were Dealt With."—Twenty-Seven Vessels From United States Are Now Held in United Kingdom Ports.

Washington, June 24.—Great Britain in a memorandum transmitted to the United States and made public here and in London tonight recites at length its efforts to minimize inconveniences to neutral commerce resulting from the order in council and asserts American citizens have no just grounds for complaint on account of the treatment accorded their cargoes.

No attempt is made to answer the note of March 3, protesting against the order in council and insisting upon the right of neutrals to carry a legitimate commerce on with each other and to trade in non-contraband goods with civilians in belligerent countries. In transmitting the memorandum Ambassador Page said it was "merely an explanation of concrete cases and the regulations under which they are dealt with."

According to a summary of ships detained there are now twenty-seven vessels which cleared from the United States now held in ports of the United Kingdom. Of these eight are said to be unloading cotton which Great Britain has agreed to purchase, seven will be allowed to depart as soon as their cargo is cleared, and the other twelve, three of them American ships, are the subject of investigations not yet completed.

Following is the text of the memorandum as transmitted by Ambassador Page:

"His Majesty's government have given assurances that they would make their first aim to minimize inconvenience which must inevitably result from the existence of a state of war at sea and in particular from the measures taken by the allied governments for the restriction of the enemy's overseas trade."

"In view of the representation complaints made as to the peculiar hardships alleged to have been imposed on American trade and shipping, His Majesty's government desire to offer the following observations respecting the manner in which they have consistently endeavored to give practical effect to those assurances."

"It will be recalled that at the moment when His Majesty's government announced their measures against enemy commerce, they declared their intention to refrain altogether from the exercise of the right to confiscate ships or cargoes which belligerents had always previously claimed in respect to contraband goods. It was explained that any person who claimed to be interested in goods placed in the prize court might forthwith issue a writ against the prize officer, of the crown, the object being to restrain upon claimants the right to institute proceedings without waiting for the writ of the procurator general and thus remove all possible cause of grievance on account of proceeding to the prize court."

"And that finally, a pacific assurance was given to the United States government that the instructions to the fleet and customs officials would impress upon them the duty of acting with the utmost dispatch and of showing in every case such consideration for neutrals as might be compatible with the object in view, namely, to prevent vessels carrying goods for, or coming from, their enemy's territory."

"Various special concessions have moreover been made in favor of United States citizens."

"Thus His Majesty's government have acted as regards shipments of American cotton in accordance with the provisions of an arrangement entered into in direct collaboration with representatives of the American cotton interests. In accepting this scheme the principal representative of the interests of the United States could properly ask. The provisions of the arrangement were, as the United States ambassador is aware, as follows:

"All cotton for which contracts of sale and freight engagements already have been made before March 2 is to be allowed free (or bought at contract price if stopped) provided the ship sails not later than the thirty-first of March."

"Similar treatment is to be accorded all cotton insured before March 2."

provided it is put on board not later than the sixteenth of March.

All shipments of cotton claiming the above protection are to be declared before sailing and documents produced to, and certificates obtained, consular officers and other authority fixed by the government."

"Considerable shipments of cotton already have been dealt with under this arrangement, and in certain cases the dates specified have been extended in favor of American shippers. The board of trade already have paid a sum exceeding 450,000 pounds to various American claimants and all claims are being and will continue to be paid as rapidly as they are presented and the proofs of title can be checked. If, in some cases, progress has been delayed, this has been due to the fact, which has seriously embarrassed His Majesty's government—that a number of consignments for which the American shippers had specifically invoked the protection of the arrangement, claimed by Swedish and Dutch firms, whose title of ownership, notwithstanding the action of the American shippers appears in some cases to be valid and in others had led to the issue of the writs in the prize court."

All Claims Settled.

"It has been explicitly acknowledged by the special representatives of the American claimants who have been in constant and direct communication with the board of trade, that all claims so far submitted under the cotton arrangement have been satisfied with the utmost promptitude. There is at the present moment no claim before His Majesty's government, the sums have not been paid and the sums paid over are already considerably in excess of the amounts realized by the sale of the goods."

"As regards the more general allegation of delay in dealing with cases of detained cargoes, the following facts and figures may be quoted:

"The total number of vessels which, having cleared from the United States ports since the initiation of the retaliatory measures against German trade, are still detained in United Kingdom ports, is twenty-seven. Of these eight are American ships, which His Majesty's government has a great purchase."

"Of the remaining nineteen vessels, seven are free to depart as soon as the items of cargo placed in the prize court have been discharged. The other twelve, of which three only are American ships, are detained pending inquiries as to the particulars of the claims and cause of detention are furnished in the accompanying list. It will be observed that eight have been detained for a period of less than a fortnight, while the detention of one is due to the difference in regard to transit across Sweden and Russia."

"His Majesty's government remain convinced that on an impartial view of the facts it will be admitted that no arbitrary interference with American interests has, in regard to cotton cargoes, occurred, while if concessions have been made to the enormous volume of American and neutral shipping, which is continually engaged in the trans-Atlantic trade, the figures and dates upon which the restriction of nature of any interference which has taken place and the close attention concerned have adhered to the instructions to act in all cases with expedition, and with every possible consideration for neutrals."

Avoid Damage to Neutrals.

"Since His Majesty's government have been compelled to adopt the present measure against Germany's special commerce they have been anxious to do as far as possible, unnecessary damage to the interests of neutrals in regard to the export of goods of German origin, and here again, liberal concessions have been made to United States citizens. Under the rules enacted on the 11th of March, provision is made for the investigation of all neutral claims respecting such goods in the prize court. Nevertheless, deference to the express desire of the United States government, arrangements were made toward the end of March, whereby United States citizens who might desire to import goods

WILSON SEES NO PROSPECT OF PEACE: CONFERS WITH HOUSE

AFTER TALK WITH PERSONAL FRIEND WHO VISITED CAPITALS OF WARRING NATIONS, PRESIDENT INDICATES THAT TIME HAS NOT YET COME.

NO TENDERS OF GOOD OFFICES

United States Has Made No Attempt to Bring About Peace, But the Attitude of This Country in Its Desire to See War End is Well Known Over the World.

New York, June 24.—President Wilson does not see any prospect for an early peace in Europe. Today Col. E. M. House, his personal friend and unofficial envoy to Europe, gave the president a report of his journey of several months in the capitals of Europe, where he talked intimately with the responsible officials of the German, British and French governments.

The president has been guided largely by him by cable and letters in handling delicate questions.

Mr. Wilson himself said last Tuesday to the Washington correspondents that no tenders of good offices had been made to any of the warring powers but that all foreign governments well understood the willingness of the United States to pave the way for an approach to peace.

One fundamental thing the president has learned, which has affected the efforts of the United States to make peace, is the unpreparedness of public opinion in some of the belligerent countries as to terms which they fear their adversaries might advance or that are already discussed. Colonel House observed during his trip to Europe that public opinion in those countries was most insistent on terms which the governments of those countries already had learned in various ways would not be acceptable to their opponents.

In all countries, he found there had developed among the masses a desire for a settlement that would be commensurate with the sacrifice in blood and treasure. If left to the diplomats in Europe alone, a return to the territorial status quo would probably be difficult, some of the information indicated.

In Germany it seemed that the object of a large and influential party was to prepare public opinion for a peace on the basis of the idea that Germany's best interests lie in colonial expansion and the incidental development of overseas commerce rather than in territorial extension in Europe. The question which Colonel House thinks likely will play a most important part in any peace negotiations is "freedom of the seas," the principle that the property of all private citizens except contraband shall be exempt from capture or seizure on the high seas in time of war.

Colonel House is known to be a supporter of the "freedom of the seas" principle and in his discussion of the subject while abroad there was some reason to believe that he had the sanction of the president. Colonel House found in Great Britain a widely varying opinion. Neither the president nor Colonel House would make any formal statement tonight in his conferences.

Oregon Holds Agues Calientes.

El Paso, June 24.—The claim of the Carranza agency that Oregon forces had occupied Aguas Calientes was accepted generally by observers notwithstanding the fact that a private message dated last night at San Carlos and signed by Villa was received here today.

Contradicting the Carranza claim was the announcement in Juarez that a passenger service was being maintained and tickets sold late today to Aguas Calientes.

Word was received that Miguel Diaz Lombardo, former minister in the Villa cabinet, would reach the border tomorrow.

Hipolito Villa, brother of Gen. Villa and the latter's financial agent in Juarez, together with Hector Ramos, reinforcements were sent today by the grand jury to a justice of the peace court.

They are charged with conspiracy to kidnap Gen. Carranza, a Mexican who disappeared from El Paso February 24. Villa was released on his own recognizance and Ramos on $500 bond, furnished by Villa.

C. J. O'Connor, representative of the American Red Cross, yesterday conferred with Venustiano Carranza on plans to relieve famine conditions in Mexico, according to a Vera Cruz dispatch made public today by the Carranza agency here. The message stated Carranza promised very assistance and added the constitutionalists were purchasing supplies to meet the shortage in food. Conditions in Mexico City are unchanged, according to the message.

$10,000 for Relief Work.

San Antonio, June 24.—With $10,000 made available by the American Red Cross society, the work of relief to the thousands of starving Mexicans in the Monclova district will be continued under the direction of Gen. C. A. Devol, acting head of the society. Supplies purchased by the first $10,000 will be exhausted within a day or two and Red Cross representatives are buying corn and beans for immediate shipment. The average cost of a car of beans is $2,000 and a car of corn $1,000, and with the sudden demand for these commodities in large quantities prices have been boosted in several instances. Corn and beans could be purchased in Mexico for considerably less than on the American side of the Rio Grande but the experiences of two deals who bought several cars of corn in Mexico and found they not been able to move them from points of origin and compel the Red Cross to buy all food supplies on the American side.

Gen. Hernandez, the Villa commander at Piedras Negras, the gateway for the Monclova district, made it part of his agreement with the Red Cross of Mexico that he would grant transportation privileges to only such food supplies as were purchased on the American side of the border.

Villa Troops Defeated.

Laredo, June 24.—Villa troops were defeated yesterday by constitutionalists at Garcia, 12 miles south of Monterey, and were forced to retreat 10 miles south of Garcia. Villa casualties were 42 killed and many wounded while the constitutionalist losses are reported as comparatively small. One Villa supply train was captured.

Skirmishing in the vicinity of Imacole, Garcia and Poredon had been in progress several days. Carranza reinforcements were sent to Garcia yesterday and a six hour engagement resulted in defeat for the Villa forces, who, it is said, had been ordered to attack the point.

Railway service is open from Monterey to Victoria and Matamoros as well as to Nuevo Laredo.

of German origin via neutral ports were enabled to produce proof of payment to His Majesty's embassy at Washington. If such proof were deemed satisfactory, His Majesty's government gave an undertaking that the goods concerned should not be interfered with in transit and the American exporter was freed from the necessity of submitting his claim to the prize court in London. His Majesty's government further agreed to recognize the neutral ownership of goods of enemy origin, even if not paid for before the 1st of March, provided they were the subject of a f. o. b. contract of earlier date and had arrived at a neutral port before the 15th of March.

"Special treatment also has been accorded cargoes of particular products destined for the United States, and stated to be indispensable for the industries of the countries, dyestuffs, potash and German beet seed.

Fix Definite Date.

"When it became apparent that large quantities of enemy goods were still passing out through neutral countries, His Majesty's government felt it necessary to fix a definite date after which such shipments must cease to enjoy the special immunity theretofore granted from liability of being placed in the prize court. It was accordingly fixed as the date after which the privilege allowed in the case of such shipments should cease; but once more a special favor was granted by extending the date in exceptional cases to the 15th of June.

"Importers in the United States having now had three months in which to clear off their purchases in enemy territory, His Majesty's government trust that, in presence of the circumstances enumerated, the United States government will acknowledge the great consideration shown to American interests.

"Nevertheless, a fresh appeal has now been made to His Majesty's government that shipments of American owned goods of enemy origin, if paid for before the beginning of March, should be allowed to be shipped without molestation after June 15. The appeal is based upon the fact that the time limit is insufficient time has already elapsed; that no mention of a time limit is made in the enactment of the 14th of March; that the proofs of ownership required by His Majesty's government are of an exacting nature and involve much time for the importer.

"The first contention has already been dealt with. As regards the others it is that the masses desire for a settlement that would be commensurate with the sacrifice in blood and treasure. If left to the diplomats in Europe alone, a return to the territorial status quo would probably be difficult, some of the information indicated.

In Germany it seemed that the object of a large and influential party was to prepare public opinion for a peace on the basis of the idea that Germany's best interests lie in colonial expansion and the incidental development of overseas commerce rather than in territorial extension in Europe. The question which Colonel House thinks likely will play a most important part in any peace negotiations is "freedom of the seas," the principle that the property of all private citizens except contraband shall be exempt from capture or seizure on the high seas in time of war.

Colonel House is known to be a supporter of the "freedom of the seas" principle and in his discussion of the subject while abroad there was some reason to believe that he had the sanction of the president. Colonel House found in Great Britain a widely varying opinion. Neither the president nor Colonel House would make any formal statement tonight in his conferences.

A gang of funmakers, headed by A. J. Eberhardt and W. J. Gelsler furnished amusement for the travelers, both coming and going. A kangaroo court held in the baggage-room kept everybody laughing on the outbound trip, and coming back the punsters conferred the degree of Brother of the Order of the Yellow Dog on many unfortunates. Souvenirs were distributed on the train by Crow Bros. Waco Auto Supply company, Cotton Palace, Texas Publicity Bureau, Progress Laundry, Baby Percy Medicine company, J. C. Will Give Special Consideration.

"His Majesty's government will be prepared heretofore to give special consideration to cases presented to them and involving particular hardships, if the goods concerned are required for neutral governments or municipalities or in respect of works of public utility and where payment can be shown to have been made before March 1, 1915.

"With the above exceptions, His Majesty's government regrets they cannot continue to deal through the diplomatic channel with individual cases, but would again point out that special provision is made for the consideration of such cases in the prize court.

"Complaints have not infrequently been made that undue delay occurs in dealing with American cargoes in the prize court. An interesting comment on this subject was made by the president of the prize court in the case of the cargo of the steamship Ogechee on the 14th instant. His lordship made the following observations:

"It is a very extraordinary thing that when the crowd are ready to go on, the claimants come here and say 'We cannot proceed for six weeks.' That is to say, the second day of the following term, they all come and said, 'We want an adjournment for six weeks.' If I might say so one of the reasons I applied today on behalf of the crown, was that the matter should be dealt with as soon as possible. There has been a strong desire on the part of America and American citizens that the matter should be dealt with as soon as possible. "Towards the end of the last term I had a row of imminent counsel in front pressing me to fix a case at once. I fixed it very nearly at once—that is to say, the second day of the following term, they all came and said, 'We want an adjournment for six weeks.' "The president then stated, 'I know that I do not know what the explanation is, but I am anxious that there should be no delay. Proceedings in this court are a number of cases principally relating to cargoes which though ostensibly consigned to a person in a neutral country are in reality believed to be carried on for the enemy, having been pending in the prize court for some time. COL. DE LA VEGA TO GO TO WASHINGTON

CHIEF OF STAFF TO MAYTORENA WILL TAKE PART IN CONFERENCE.

General Angeles, Right Hand Man of General Villa, Has Ideas for Peace.

El Paso, June 24.—Col. De La Vega, chief of staff to Gov. Jose Maytorena in Sonora, has arrived here en route to Washington to represent the governor at a conference to be held soon on the Mexican situation. He will leave for the east tomorrow.

Gen. Ramon Fraustro, who was president of the military court at Juarez which investigated the killing of Gen. Carranza, was executed at Vera Cruz two weeks ago, according to advices received here.

Angeles Has Ideas.

Boston, June 24.—Gen. Felipe Angeles, right-hand man of Gen. Francisco Villa, has ideas for the pacification and rehabilitation of Mexico which will be divulged to President Wilson—and to him only—if opportunity offers. This was made known by the general today during an extended interview in which he discussed every angle of the Mexican situation except the immediate steps which he believed should be taken.

"I will paint for President Wilson a true picture of affairs in my country if I am honored with a private audience, and I shall not, however, approach him as a representative of any faction, but only as one who has seen and knows and ardently hopes for better things.

"I am not sure that he can receive me in private, but I shall return to Mexico by way of Washington and if opportunity offers I shall gladly avail myself of it.

"Mexicans as a whole have come to regard the continued fighting as a calamity. The country is distraught. Communications are cut off. Business is paralyzed. It will take us some time to recover from the waste of the past few years, but we can recover under a wise and patriotic administration capable of maintaining order and as a nation we shall go forward stronger and better than ever.

Has No Exact Plan.

"I have no exact plan but I have certain ideas for the pacification of the country and these I hope to lay before President Wilson. I shall discuss them only with him. It is no secret, however, that I am in favor of a provisional president who has not been allied with any faction. He must not be a military man. He must have enough of military training to include myself among those who are not eligible. I have no ambition for the presidency nor has Gen. Villa. I am a revolutionary in principle but not a military leader. A strong business man would do. The Villa faction would negotiate with Carranza even though he is regarded as a rebel. I believe that with a proper spirit shown we can agree upon some one satisfactory to all. Unless some such agreement is reached we must fight on until all sides are exhausted.

Intervention in the sense of an army of Mexican would never be understood by Mexicans as in their interests, no matter how well intended," continued Gen. Angeles. "I hope to see President Wilson may take other forms that appear more friendly. There is the moral force of the United States and the purpose of war, at last financial aid. Intervention along these lines would be a provision of peace and order to Mexico who are interested in the restoration of their government and country.

"I am particularly anxious to meet you in person. He was a good friend of the revolution, and again because of my personal regard for him.

Western Ontario Battalion Almost Wiped Out in Battle

Toronto, Ont., June 24.—The first Western Ontario battalion was all but annihilated in the section near La Bassee, in northern France, on June 15, last, says a semi-official account received here today. Out of between 600 and 700 men, the battalion lost in killed and wounded nearly 500, including twenty officers.

Twelve of the officers were killed in this action, according to the account, leaving only three officers of the battalion unwounded.

The Western Ontario battalion was selected to co-operate with the British troops in attacking a German position. Three trenches were their objective. They came from the rear, having had a rest preparatory to the onslaught, which took place in the evening. The Germans apparently had an idea that a serious attack was to be attempted and as events proved, had made elaborate preparations for resistance. Says the account:

"The first two trenches were taken at a heavy cost. We then went for the large trench, but the Germans with reinforcements concentrated a tremendous volume of fire upon us. I should say that by this time considerably more than half our officers and men had been killed or wounded. Gradually the position became untenable and it was necessary to relinquish the ground already won. We could not with our depleted force resist them, so we moved back. The Germans then tried hard to shift us from our original position, but to no purpose.

"The battalion went into that action from 600 to 700 strong. The killed and wounded numbered nearly 500, including twenty out of twenty-three officers, twelve of whom were killed."

Five More Severe Shocks at Calexico

Calexico, Cal., June 24.—Five severe earthquake shocks occurred here again tonight. The first was felt about 8:15 and the succeeding four at intervals until 10:10 p. m. People, nervous from their experiences since Tuesday night, when the city was badly shaken up, rushed into the streets and open spaces, but no appreciable damage was done. No injury to the irrigation system was reported. Wire communication was not interrupted. Some walls weakened by previous shocks collapsed.

Mass Meeting Condemns Reports.

El Centro, Cal., June 24.—The first of the shocks tonight occurred while a mass meeting was in session concerning Tuesday night's quakes. It did not interrupt the proceedings and resolutions were passed condemning reports sent out from here as exaggerations.

Arrest Alleged Carranza Spy.

Naco, Ariz., June 24.—Gen. Acosta, of Gov. Maytorena's forces in Sonora, entered Naco, Sonora, yesterday and arrested Willard Haymore, a Douglas, Ariz., as a Carranza spy. The Mexican officers were said to have been drinking. Haymore was taken to camp at San Jose and then released.

Bryan Speaks Again on Subject of Peace

New York, June 24.—Wm. Jennings Bryan addressing a meeting in Madison Square Garden tonight under the auspices of the "Friends of Peace," an organization of various societies of American citizens, gave his definition of national honor and called upon his hearers to "cast your influence not in favor of either side, but in favor of peace for the United States and against war with any of the belligerent nations." He reiterated his views regarding his proposal to submit all disputes to an international commission.

After Mr. Bryan spoke the meeting passed a resolution calling upon the government to place an embargo on the exportation of arms and ammunition.

Mr. Bryan began his address tonight by declaring his conviction that the people of this country would stand solidly behind the president in case of war. But whether we should engage in war, he said, is a question still open for discussion. Mr. Bryan asserted there is no question but that the nation's honor shall be maintained, but only a question as to what is national honor and what it requires. He defined national honor as a sentiment and sentiment as one of the greatest factors in human progress.

Mr. Bryan said all citizens were agreed this country should follow an honorable course, and whether it should be the old bloodstained definition which he said the jingoes recommended or a definition in harmony with the spirit of the age, it a question upon which every citizen has a right to speak.

Mr. Bryan denounced the men who, he said, call upon this nation to take up arms. "They do not represent either the interests or the purpose of the American people," he continued.

"I appeal to you to make your views known to the president that he may be strengthened against the insolent clamor of those who ridicule peaceful methods and as if infuriated by the scent of blood are bellowing for war. I appeal to you to cast your influence not in favor of either side, but in favor of peace for the United States against war with any of the belligerent nations."

The combined circles within the Woman's auxiliary meets this afternoon at the First Baptist church. The hour is 4 o'clock, as announced in the calendar. Mrs. H. H. Crouch is chairman of circle No. 5, who is in charge of the missionary program. This will be followed by a prayer service with Miss Ida Hays, leader; this latter takes the place of the accustomed social hour, since the congregation is now in the midst of annual revival.

MRS. IRVING SWANN FOR MISS KATHLEEN GOULD

In quite the informal manner, Mrs. Irving Swann and Mrs. T. E. Jarman entertained with a small bridge party on Wednesday as one of the pleasures within the visit of Miss Kathleen Gould of Austin, who is with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Early. Three tables made the progressions, the hostesses themselves taking hands. At the close, scoring and cutting gave awards to Miss Mary Carter and Miss Ellen Harden, with an honor favor to Miss Gould. Playing in this game were the Mesdames Lewis Early, W. W. Early, with the Mesdames Gould, Carter, Harden, Janet Gorman, Vivien Mayfield, Marian Duncan, Harriet Morse and Sallie Morse.

CAMPERS LEAVE TODAY FOR BOSQUE FALLS

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shear in compliment to their guest, Miss Alice Lovelace of Austin, a party of campers is leaving this morning for the falls of the Bosque. There, a camp house, dining hall, and other conveniences are in readiness. The party will be out enjoying fishing and the usual camp pleasures until Sunday night, when they return home by moonlight. In the meantime, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Clark and Lieutenant Cunningham of Dallas will come down for a camp visit. Others will perhaps go out for the day. Remaining through the time are Mrs. Frank Wheeler and Mrs. Harold Shear, chaperones, with the Mesdames Lovelace, Frances Van Boddie, Sallie Thompson, Emma Farrell and Enrique Smith with Coman Shear, Harold Shear, Billie Brown, W. D. Lucy Jr., Bruce Duncan and Francis Herbelin.

FULL DRESS WEDDING FOR MISS ZYLPHA VICK

With more than the dozen attendants, the dainty little flower girl, and a full choir, Miss Zylpha Vick, one of the beloved young women in the Sunday school of the Central Christian church, became the bride of James Rudolph Isam, a young lawyer of Jonesboro, Arkansas. Dr. F. N. Calvin was in the pulpit. Elaborate decorations had been placed, and when full flood of light poured upon the crowded auditorium, the scene was brilliant. Having been organist in the primary section of the Sunday school, it was the pleasure of the choir director, Mrs. Grace Cutler, to arrange for more than the usual musical feature in this wedding service. This was preceded by male solo. This young bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Vick of North Fifteenth street, is now gone into a new home. A few days will be spent in Galveston, a fleeting visit paid here with the early week, and then will come final departure for Jonesboro.

MARY WEST CHAPTER MEETS WITH MRS. J. W. HOLLOWAY

On the shady porch with touches to bespeak the anticipation of company, Mrs. J. W. Holloway was hostess for the Mary West chapter at its business meeting on Wednesday. The chapter has a new summer schedule, that of combining the business and historical sessions, heretofore separate, into one, and meeting monthly instead of bi-weekly. This will be on the last Wednesday of each month until cooler weather. With Mrs. Holloway, it was decided to dissolve the circles which have existed for two seasons; instead, an extra amount will be added to the yearly dues, each hostess attacking the social feature, and drawing on chapter treasury instead of circle members for expense attending. This was deemed much more satisfactory. Message of remembrance was sent to Mrs. J. J. Ellis, one of the valued and beloved members of the chapter.

As social feature with Mrs. W. H. Forrester, chairman, punch was offered. Also, by request, Mrs. Edith Lessing read her original poem, "My Baby's Picture," and Master Jack McReynolds recited. Informal discussion was held over the proposed Jefferson Davis highway, in which the Mary West members are greatly interested.

PRINCETON COMMENCEMENT GIVES INTERESTING NOTE

Papers which have reached this city give interesting detail concerning the order of commencement week at Princeton. The personal association lies in the fact that Berry Brazelton, a Waco boy, took his degree, that the mother, Mrs. W. B. Brazelton, present, and that John Davis, a former Princetonian, was present for his class reunion. The actual order is not so interesting this far away except that it gives insight as to what commencement means in one of the oldest educational institutions in our country. It is too bad to tell, but first of all it rained, and then it rained some more. This was the one hundred and sixty-eighth commencement of Princeton, nearly two centuries of existence for this university.

One of the incidents is the historic cup ceremony. This means the seniors pass the loving cup, and say farewell to each other and to college days. The keys are then handed formally over to the juniors, the seniors of the year to come.

Athletics came prominently into the closing program. Intercollegiate contests embraced all phases of university exercises. Here, young Brazelton's name figured several times, he being one of the champion athletes of Princeton.

Nearly three hundred received degrees, and many of the prominent men of America received honorary degrees. This meant they were present, one being no less a celebrity than Thomas A. Edison.

The salutatory was delivered in Latin, a time-honored university custom. The man who carried the honor made highest record since the day of the great Aaron Burr.

The valedictorian, rather than the stereotyped farewell, he stated defects in college education, something altogether practical. Another man to receive honorary degree was Goethals of Panama Canal fame.

Waco has former Princetonians who will be interested in these desultory notes from their alma mater; also, many will be interested as insight into university customs.

HIGH NOON WEDDING HAS MANY GUESTS

At high noon, guests bidden to the marriage of William Edward Andrews and Miss Johnnie Boyette, assembled in large numbers within the Colonial street Baptist church. These guests meant families and friends, many come from other towns, for interest in both the groom and the bride. The latter has known no home but this. Her year at school in Virginia, however, has taken interest in this happy event, without the state, this friendship being attested by recognition in gift, and good wish letters. Promptly at the hour named in invitations, the entrance of the bride and her retinue was ready. The palm set alight made indeed the refreshing frontispiece for the new bride.

Notice to Subscribers.

Delivery routes in the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers. Who buy their papers at wholesale. Subscription accounts are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except by month. They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

THE STUDENT LOAN FUND.

Friends of education in the state generally will do well to supplement the hard work which Hon. Charles B. Metcalfe of Tom Green county is doing in his efforts to secure the adoption on July 24 of the constitutional amendment which will authorize the legislature to pass a student loan fund law whereby each county may, by a local option election, levy a special tax for the creation of a fund to be loaned to deserving young men and women of that county in the completion of their education.

There are many opportunities for these young people to work their way through college, of course, but the number of opportunities is not equal to the demand and some such fund as is proposed here offers the only hope for many deserving young people to become thoroughly equipped for the duties of life by having obtained a liberal education. And many young men and women in their efforts at working their way through college have impaired their health by so doing, when if they had had a fund upon which they could have drawn for a small sum each year they could have finished without incurring this injury to their constitution. An obligation of this character, instead of becoming a handicap to them, would prove a moral stimulus and spur them on to higher attainment than if no such obligation had been assumed.

Under the amendment, if adopted, the legislature will be empowered to pass a law permitting the various county commissioners' courts to call an election to determine whether a special tax, not to exceed 20 cents on the $100 property valuation, shall be voted to create a loan fund to be loaned by the court to deserving boys and girls, and young men and women of that county for the completion of their high school course and having completed that, to continue their studies in some higher educational institution maintained by the state. It is seen, then, that the home rule provision dominates the matter, it being left to the vote of each county. The tax is imposed for a certain period of years and in case the people become dissatisfied with the arrangement they can, upon securing the proper number of signatures, ask the commissioners' court to call an election to determine whether the tax shall be dropped or not. Thus the will of the majority will prevail in voting the tax in the first place and then maintaining it afterward. The fund will grow from year to year, for property valuations will increase and then after a year or so the students will begin to pay back their borrowings with interest.

Experience has demonstrated that very few students fail to make good who have occasion to make use of the student loan funds. The story comes that in 1882, Joseph E. Brown, one-time governor, justice of the supreme court and United States senator from Georgia, contributed $50,000 to the University of Georgia for a student loan fund. This money has been loaned for five years at 4 per cent interest and without security. Nevertheless, there have been very few defaults and the modest sum of $50,000 has grown during the years until now it amounts to $180,000. Texas will be afforded the opportunity for each of its counties to raise a loan fund if this amendment is adopted, and we hope the friends of education will see to it that it is adopted.

A man who is extremely vociferous in demanding what he calls his rights wants something more than what is due him, observes the Albany Journal.

THE POOL HALL DECISION.

The Morning News does not presume to be sufficiently posted in the law to dispute the decision of the state supreme court on any issue, yet we would be untrue to our convictions if we did not express regret that the pool hall law has been held by that tribunal to be unconstitutional. There is no greater enemy of boyhood and young manhood in this state—unless it be the saloon itself and many believe it a worse enemy than the saloon—than the pool hall and that evil had been curtailed in many places through the operation of the local option law on that subject which has now been held of no effect by the highest court in the state.

There being no issue at stake on which an appeal can be taken to the supreme court of the United States, we presume the decision of the court will be generally accepted for there is apparently no other recourse for the present. But the sentiment against the pool hall in this state is entirely too strong to suppose that the restored status of the pool hall will be allowed to remain without further efforts at restrictive legislation.

Just what direction new legislation will take we do not know, but the clearest route, it would seem, in view of the decision of the supreme court, would be the submission of a constitutional amendment directing the legislature to enact a local option pool room law, just as was done many years ago in regard to the liquor question. This would remove all objections noted by the supreme court and if the vote in the various elections that have been held under the law that has just been given a solar plexus blow by the supreme court is any indication of public sentiment in this state, such an amendment would be adopted overwhelmingly.

Another means of getting rid of the pool hall would be a statewide statute abolishing it, and we believe this would meet both objections raised to the present statute by the supreme court, but so salutary a measure as the abolition of the pool halls might well have the express sanction of the constitution and we believe the amendment suggested would be preferable to a mere statutory enactment.

It is interesting to note that the opposition to the pool hall is not confined to prohibitionists, though most prohibitionists are opposed to the pool halls. The average pool hall is the enemy of boys and young men in that it encourages gambling, loitering, lying and general worthlessness. Boys fascinated by the game, lie as to their ages in order to be permitted to play. Many of them who have not funds of their own sufficient to meet their obligations, borrow money which they cannot pay back and in many instances have been known to resort to forgery in order to secure the needed funds. Some of them spend money, which was intended for lunch, at the pool tables and many of the proprietors of pool halls encourage gambling. The trash of the town usually employs the lower-class pool halls as a resort and the fact that a boy or young man visits the pool hall regularly is about the poorest recommendation, in the eyes of the average business man to whom he applies for a position, he could offer.

We do not need the pool halls back in Waco, but they will probably come back for a season. If they do, we trust the city commission will promptly pass an ordinance closing them at 9:30 p. m., the same hour that the saloons close, and throw about them such other regulations as will reduce their evil influence to a minimum until such time as the people of the state who are opposed to such institutions—and we believe a large majority occupy such a position—have had an opportunity to enact such new measures as will meet the objections of the supreme court for the eradication of the pool halls.

It is possible, we presume, for a pool hall to be conducted without incurring all the objections we have enumerated against it, but the majority of the proprietors have not chosen to so conduct their places, and have thus forced all proprietors to suffer the stigma that has been placed upon the business.

If the local rooters are anxious to see the Waco Navigators get back on their feet again they might try sending them a few cases of Circle A gin-gin ale, a "Made-in-Waco" product.

It is very nice for the health experts and the economists to advise us to stay away from the soda fountains these torrid days, for we would like to be able to conserve both our health and our nickels, but somehow a little ready comfort just now is more satisfying than a whole lot of it after awhile.

E. M. House appears to be just as anxious for peace in the democratic party as Bryan for harmony among the nations. As an evidence of this he has invited the Commoner to visit him at his summer home in New Hampshire in July when some of the Texan's arts as a peacemaker will be plied upon the gifted Nebraskan.

A MAN AMONG MEN.

Throughout the country men and women were sympathizing with Warden Allen of the state penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois, over the tragic death of his wife, who was, according to all accounts, cruelly murdered by one of the honor convicts of the prison. But that sympathy was soon lost in the admiration for the man who before the wife who had been suddenly torn from him had been laid away in her grave, through the depravity of a brute who had violated the honor system, sent word to the other inmates of the prison that the one violation of the system would not cause him to lose faith in the honor system as a whole, and that the men who had remained true to the system would not be deprived of the privileges which that system conferred.

This decision marks Mr. Allen as a man among men. He has no narrow vision, no small jealousies and prejudices, to obscure his judgment of things or mar his appreciation of their true values. Such an experience would have so embittered the most of us against an honor system that we would have torn it to shreds and denied its every privilege to every man in the prison for fear another would betray the confidence it imposed. But not so with him. He has been trying the honor system for years. He has found it a powerful asset in the making of a man, and the re-making of men. And though his lower impulses might have rejoiced in the withdrawal of all privileges in the hope of inflicting punishment upon all the undeserving in the prison—and in all prisons there are some men who are not worthy of being shown favor—his higher nature did not consider such base ideas at all and he thought solely of the good that could be done for the men as a whole and not of the punishment that might be inflicted upon a few, no matter how much they might have deserved it.

Mr. Allen is wedded to an ideal—that of a square deal, a fair chance for every man, no matter if he has offended in the past—and he will not be jarred loose from that ideal even though his faith in it has been sorely tried in this tragedy that has robbed him of his life companion.

The honor system has been violated at Joliet in a manner that would cause most men to desert it immediately, but Warden Allen's love for the men in his charge was second only to his love for his wife, and the love of the men in return for him has broadened him and refined his life until he has reached a plane above that on which dwells the great mass of humanity, a plane on which love overpowers hatred and on which the guilt of the few is never punished at the expense of the innocence of the many.

The message of Mr. Allen's "boys," as the convicts under his charge subscribe themselves, to him in his hour of sore distress is peculiarly pathetic and inspired by men who have come to appreciate him at his true worth. To deny the petition of these fellows to remain at Joliet and assist them in improving the honor system would be exceedingly unfortunate and we cannot believe as big a man as the warden has just proved himself to be will consider running away from it in the hope of burying his sorrow. He can bury his sorrow only in finding the larger joy that will be his in carrying the honor system to its completion.

S. W. Porter of Sherman has developed the Woodrow Wilson Peace peach, the dispatches inform us. It is of the clingstone variety, indicating the tenacity, firmness and steadiness of nerve of the president; it is of a luscious red color, we are informed, suggestive of the fact that red blood courses through the president's veins; it is an early bearer, indicative of the fact that the president never loses any time getting on the job; and weighs three and a half pounds to the dozen, suggestive of the fact that the president is a heavyweight. In view of all these facts, we think the peach is very well named and of course any man who is supplied with such a nice peach would be at peace with all the world. If this peach had arrived on the scene a few weeks sooner, possibly Mr. Bryan would not have resigned as secretary of state.

A trained diplomat, a close student of international law, one who has had more experience in settling international disputes than any other living man, a scholar who has a wealth of information at his command, a man of clear brain, cool head and strong character, thoroughly acquainted with the policies of the present administration and in thorough accord with them, Robert Lansing is ideally equipped for the duties of secretary of state and we are glad President Wilson has named him for that position.

Philadelphia may have been a very sleepy old town in the past, but the Ad Men of the World will wake her up in 1916. And maybe the old town will in return for that consideration inject a little more of her choice supply of brotherly love into the trade getters.

SAN ANTONIO 1916

W. A. ACHILLES OF AUSTIN IS ELECTED PRESIDENT; CHAS. CHAMBERLAIN, VICE.

An Ode to Texas

Let Texan voices ring aloud,
And Texan hearts be duly proud
Of their enormous state,
Her fertile lands from teeming fields
A wealth of grain and cotton yields,
That is supremely great;
While cattle from a thousand hills
Her hospitable larger fills,
With meats the gods would state.

The timber in her forests vast Uncounted centuries would last,
Used with a pyrethrum hand,
The minerals deep in her breast,
Are counted as among the best
Of hidden treasures grand;
And there is not on all the earth
A soil of more intrinsic worth,
Than in our Texas land.

Blue-bonnets on her prairies fair
Wave gaily in the wholesome air,
Through all the days of spring;
The mocking bird with mimic song
That flows the day and night along,
Makes grove and thicket ring;
While roses on the waiting air,
Alive with fragrance rich and rare,
Their royal breathings fling.

A wealth of grand, historic lore
Is held for her in sacred store,
By names that cannot die;
Her Goliad, her Alamo
And San Jacinto, brightly glow
With flame that blinds the eye;
And show to ancient Greece and Rome
Why Fame with us has made her home, While Mars sits smiling by.

Grand Crockett stood, a fighting host,
While Bowie, just a breathing ghost,
Was brought across the line;
Brave Travis, knowing he was near,
Saw Death approach without a fear,
And all with courage fine,
Went gallantly and splendidly,
And with a matchless bravery,
Before the Court Divine.

Rich then in all that makes for fame,
And with a fair, and deathless name,
She goes her onward way;
With solid worth and talents blest,
She stands the biggest and the best,
And we may truly say,
The grandest state that has a place,
Among the brilliant stars that grace
Our nation's bright array.

And we, her sons and daughters, then,
Fair women and just-hearted men,
May proudly sing her praises,
The ringing plaudits of her worth
In righteousness may thunder forth,
And waving banners raise;
And while they quiver in the breeze
Thank Heaven on our bended knees,
That we behold these days.

And we shall set our lives apart,
To fix within each youthful heart,
Through Texas far and wide,
And hold it there with jealous care,
And guard it with the patience rare,
That patriotic pride;
The crowning glory of the state,
That is the fairest child of Fate—
The deathless heroes bide!

Classes in grammar, arithmetic and penmanship will be given three nights; a class in higher accounting for those who wish to take up advanced work in accounting will meet two nights each week; classes in salesmanship, advertising and practical plumbing will hold sessions two nights. These are the ones that have been definitely decided on and several others are under consideration. Doctor Dernburg in England But the Fact Was Not Known

London, June 24.—Unknown to the British public, Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, whose propaganda in favor of Germany while he was a visitor to the United States created much concern reported last night aboard the Norwegian steamer Bergenstorf in the harbor of Kirkwall, Orkney Islands. Tonight, however, he is proceeding to Sweden on his way to Germany aboard the Bergenstorf. It was reported that Dr. Dernburg was in England yesterday presumably on suspicion that she carried contraband. The steamer was released this afternoon.

Dr. Dernburg was in no danger of being stopped by the British officials, in view of the promise to give him free passage.

Germans Can't Stay With This Treatment

No Impurities Can Retain A Foothold—They're Driven Out.

The action of S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, is direct from the moment it enters the stomach. Unlike food that must be acted upon by the digestive juices, S. S. S. goes at once into the blood, and in less than five minutes has traversed the entire circulation.

It now rapidly spreads its medicinal action in the fine network of blood vessels and is like giving the blood a "rough bath," to overcome eczema, blood ringings, boils and other eruptions of the skin. It does not lodge in the joints as do mercury, arsenic and other minerals frequently to be found in blood remedies. It is a natural medicine for the blood, just as essential to health if germs have gotten the upper hand as is nutritious food if after a spell of sickness the body calls for nourishment. Wherever you go you are sure to meet some one who used S. S. S. for the blood and is a willing witness to its wonderful power. You can obtain S. S. S. in almost any drug store in the U. S. A. a significant fact as to its worth and its sterling reputation. Get a bottle today. It will do you good. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 104 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., if the directions with the bottle do not fully cover your case.

People of Dallas May Vote on Jitneys

Dallas, June 24.—The people of Dallas will probably be given a chance to vote on an ordinance to allow jitneys to run in Dallas without restrictions. This proposition was considered today at a meeting of the executive committee of the Jitney Drivers' Union.

The tentative draft of a jitney ordinance was considered, which will be printed on petitions and circulated for signatures in an initiative measure, should an adverse decision be rendered in the jitney injunction case now pending in the court of civil appeals. It is understood that a decision on the jitney case might possibly be rendered by the court next Saturday. It is practically certain that a decision will be handed down before July 15.

The heavy vote polled in the last municipal election puts an entirely different aspect on initiative petitions. Fifteen per cent of the qualified voters for mayor in the preceding municipal election are required in order to make the city commissioner take action and call an election. Where in former years only a few hundred voters were needed to submit an initiative ordinance to a vote of the people, it will require in this instance about 3000 signatures of legal voters to ensure submission.

CALOMEL SELDOM SOLD HERE NOW

NASTY DRUG SALIVATES, MAKES YOU SICK AND YOU LOSE A DAY'S WORK.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. "Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back."

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

AGREEMENT ON SALT RATES AT HEARING

WILL RETAIN PRESENT MINIMUM OF 30,000 POUNDS INSTEAD OF 40,000.

Disposes of Tariff on Pickles, Vinegar, Etc., in Less Than Carload Lots.

Austin, June 24.—At the freight rate hearing before the railroad commission this morning shippers and railroads reached an agreement on salt in carload shipments and with their agreement the matter was taken under advisement by the commission. It was decided to retain the present minimum of 30,000 pounds instead of making a minimum of 40,000 pounds. All special rates on this commodity except those to the Gulf ports would be cancelled if the minimum remains at 30,000 pounds.

The commission also disposed of the proposed tariff on pickles, vinegar, etc., in less than carloads. The proposed tariff by the railroads on these commodities would cancel tariff 26-A, the one now in force and make class rates apply. The major portion of the increase in the rates would be for distances of over 150 miles.

U. S. Pavlett of San Antonio, submitting a proposed substitute scale for the railroad's tariff on pickles and vinegar and this was taken under consideration by the commission.

A. M. Scott of Austin, representing the Walker properties, stated that 75 per cent of his business moved over distances in excess of 150 miles and that the proposed tariff of the railroads would mean a material increase in freight charges. G. G. Geyer of San Antonio, representing Price-Booker Manufacturing company, explained that his business had been built up on special rates given it by railroads and that the abolishment of them now would materially affect his business.

Gentry Waldo, on behalf of the railroads, stated that he believed that the carriers had assisted these industries enough; that the roads had carried their produce at a loss and that now when the carriers submit a tariff on which they could make a fair return on this service, strenuous objection is heard.

After taking this under advisement the commission adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Are we all rising at the first note of "Star Spangled Banner"? Do we stand respectfully until the last note? No. We are not as respectful to our national anthem as the nations now at war, whom we decry as barbarians.

We have never understood why the women of Waco do not abandon the hat for informal wear, as they do in many other places; instead, use the jaunty summer parasol, which is infinitely more comfortable for the exceedingly warm days.

We had the query come all the way from Arkansas, "Is 'perfectly all right' correct?" Of course not; if a thing is all right, it is perfect, for "all" includes perfection. Therefore, the phrase which the girls roll so glibly under their tongues is tautology.

John Barrymore in "The Dictator."

John Barrymore, whose every appearance on the screen insures a carnival of mirth, attains a genuine triumph in the Famous Players

Film company's thrillingly humorous photo-adaptation of the popular stage success, "The Dictator," by the celebrated author, Richard Harding Davis.

The central character of this famous comedy-drama is Brooke Travers, a young American, who is forced by existing and exciting circumstances to become temporarily the dictator of a small republic in South America, and who in doing so becomes the hero of many momentous situations, some comic, and some very serious indeed, from all of which he emerges the victor, through the aid of his clever wit and never-failing audacity, and is finally rescued from his predicament by a kindly fate in the substantial guise of an American battleship.

Produced in Cuba, the film version of "The Dictator" adheres in atmospheric detail to all the requirements of the unusual story, while John Barrymore's personal success can not be exaggerated.

race. This makes a fitting climax to the picture.

The story of "The Sporting Duchess" abounds in the elements that make for popularity.

AT THE REX.

Following on the heels of the Paramount masterpiece, Marguerite Clark in the "Goose Girl" yesterday, the Rex today will present a double feature bill, consisting of two productions each of unusual merit, together with two good comedies. The program furnishes a delightful variety. There is Florence LaBadie, one of the greatest of picture favorites, supported by Harry Benham in the charming two part "The Country Girl," from the facile pen of the famous David Garrick; the scene is of a country estate in England in the eighteenth century and the story very cunningly depicts a unique method of "how love finds the way."

"The Superficial Wife" is a two part Broncho which tells how the extravagant wife experiences a nightmare, and afterwards bothers her husband no more with her wild wishes for in the horrible dream she brings ruin on herself and her hard working husband.

This C. W. Dunn, a fair release, which relies more on the strong characterizations rendered by Walter Edwards and Leonna Hutton, who appear in the leading parts to sustain the interest than in any novel or thrilling action.

"Unwinding It" is a good farce comedy featuring Fay Tincher and Elmer Booth, in which amusing complications are caused by the stolen money getting into the wrong pair of stockings.

"Pirates Bold" is another "kid" picture with the principal parts done by stars of the Majestic juvenile company and telling of a narrowly averted catastrophe caused by unruly and romantic children playing "pirates."

AT THE NICKEL TODAY.

"The Awakening" is a two part Vitagraph feature, with that most admired pair, Earle Williams and Anita Stewart, is the first real satisfying picture in which these most popular stars appear, for heretofore it was always the other fellow that won the girl, but in this, though engaged to a society lady of leisure, Mr. Williams "awakens" to where his love really lies. Miss Stewart plays the part of the poor girl whose crippled brother is cured by the famous doctor, a part taken by Mr. Williams in the most perfect way, who through overwork, becomes very ill, is waited on by her, though his finances have been called on but fears to go for all danger is past to see through a crack in the door that which makes her send back the engagement ring.

"Sonny Jim at the Mardi Gras," a one part Vitagraph, with that great boy actor, Bobby Connelly, who takes a little pickaninny to Coney Island, bringing that famous place right before your eyes, is worth your time and money, as that makes it unnecessary to leave Waco to see one of the world's greatest pleasure grounds. Every child will find in this picture instruction and entertainment, besides seeing Bobby at his best.

Bob Proves Hero of Day in Chase After Elusive Hen

Bob is advertising expert for the Power-Kelly Drug company. Somebody copied his advertising harness, advising buyers to "get it where they've got it," but it has not affected his publicity activities in the least. Bob put across a good one late yesterday afternoon.

It was just at the supper hour when a hen intended for chicken pie in a downtown restaurant escaped from a coop in the rear and ascended to the second floor by the way of the back stairs. She made her getaway known when she went hurtling and squawking from the awning into the midst of the 6 o'clock traffic jam at Fifth and Austin.

The proprietor of the restaurant attempted to herd her into the restaurant again, but she refused to be herded. Two newsboys were offered a dime to recapture the layer. A policeman joined in the chase and traffic became impossibly tangled as hundreds of pedestrians took part in the shagging.

Bob saw it all. Standing on the curbing he observed weighty men perspiring in the unusual unbecoming effort to return the hen to captivity. A few canines from the rabble joined in the pursuit, but not Bob. He is a business dog and such shows are beneath his collar.

"Go get 'er, Bob!" sang out a bystander. Everybody knows Bob.

Bob pondered. How could he turn the capture of a chicken on Austin avenue into publicity for his firm? Maybe he glanced around and saw a newspaper man present. Anyway, he finally jumped from the curb and started after the hen, driving her toward sixth street.

"Wait a minute Bob," called the cop. "Head her this way." So Bob went around the hen and shoed her toward sixth street. As he passed a picture was taken of him. Running ahead of the hen, he drove her into the lobby where she was cornered by the swinging doors. Bob made no effort to touch the hen, waiting until the newswoman came up and took her in tow. The kids got a nickel apiece—but Bob trotted away contentedly—he had put across a good publicity stunt.

Bob glanced up, probably to make sure the newspaper man had witnessed it all. He had. So when Bobby sees this he will know that his press agenting was a brilliant success.

Dr. Dawson Talks On Spiritual Hunger

Drawing the lesson from Zacheus that in every heart, no matter how depraved and sinful, there is a longing and spiritual hunger for Christ, Rev. J. M. Dawson preached last night to an audience that was marked by earnestness and sympathy in the revival service of the First Baptist church held in the tabernacle built on the lawn for that purpose. There were many responses from the audience to the question asked by the pastor as to what they were praying for which was a manifestation of the interest taken in the revival by the church.

The business men's prayer meeting will be held at noon sharp today and C. A. Kelly will lead. There were 67 present at the various district prayer meetings attended by the ladies of the church in the different parts of the city yesterday and they will meet at the church today in their regular monthly meeting, group No. 5 having charge of the program. Thirty minutes before the service tonight the personal workers will hold their daily prayer meeting. Tonight's service will be the last before Sunday, as it has been decided to give Saturday as a rest day and a large attendance is anticipated.

Although there has been good cooperation all during the revival, the pastor urged last night that the Christians would "go out into the highways and hedges and among the downcast" and invite them to the service. Dr. Dawson reminded those present that faith without works is dead and that prayer without effort is hypocrisy and with sin convicting power presented the plan of salvation. There were two additions to the church.

If you want a photograph, surely you want the best. Thompson's Studio is where you know you will get it. —Adv.

BIG PARTY LEAVES FOR HUNTSVILLE TODAY

PENITENTIARY AGENT ARRIVES
IN WACO WITH 20 CONVICTS
FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

TO TAKE TWENTY-ONE FROM HERE

County Jail Crowded to Capacity with 123 Prisoners, Taking All Available Space.

Sleeping space was at a premium last night at the Hotel de Fleming. Twenty quondam residents of Hillsboro, Waxahachie and Dallas came in during the evening on a "personally conducted" excursion to Huntsville. Ed Russell, state penitentiary transfer agent, being in charge of the party. Twenty-one of those now sojourning here will join the party for the remainder of the trip, leaving this morning in their private car. Incidentally, this is one of those "round trip" excursions, where none of the excursionists can take advantage of their return tickets for from two years to twenty, and some of them will become lifetime residents of Huntsville, by special invitation of the state of Texas.

The Hotel de Fleming is one Waco caravansary which is not affected by hard times. Very few days pass but that Ed Costly, the general innkeeper, more commonly known as the county jailer, throws the big iron doors open to admit some guest, and clings them securely shut after the "guest" has entered. There were 103 registered at the jail before the advent of the visitors last night, who brought the total number up to 123, many more than the jail can comfortably accommodate. Some of the negro prisoners had quite a concert on the second floor. One of them had a guitar, and they sang to its music until a late hour. The old county jail seems almost like home to many of its inmates, and most of those who leave this morning do so with regret, as they do not relish the idea of entering upon the really hard work which will be their lot at Huntsville.

Jailer Costly will be rather relieved to see some of his prisoners go, as 103 are a good many to handle. He will still have plenty of guests to keep his "rim" running, however, and they will be added to constantly by those who make the mistake of breaking the laws of the state of Texas—and getting caught at it.

Of those who will go from McLennan county this trip, only two have been convicted of murder, Richard Pease and John Green, both negroes. Pease killed an old negro near Elm Mott and Green killed a negro woman in East Waco by hitting her over the head with an iron cuspidor. Each of them faces a sentence of ten years.

Fred Barr, convicted in three cases of burglary, also has ten years to serve, four in each of two cases and two in the third one. Alex Martin also has a ten-year sentence on a conviction of theft of over $50.

Conviction in a burglary case drew four years for D. Williams, and conviction of theft from person gave him an additional three years, making seven, all told. Antony Buen was also convicted on two charges, being given four years for a horse and two years for burglary.

Two women, both negroes, are in the Waco contingent. They are Della Williams, convicted of theft from person, and Myrtle Alford, convicted of burglary, each of them having been given five years' livelihood at the state's expense.

Other members of the Waco party and the length of time they are scheduled to stay in Huntsville are George Harrison, manslaughter, 3 1/2 years; Jim Hale, forgery (two cases), 4 years; Jim Lee, robbery, 5 years; E. E. Wainwright, receiving stolen goods, 2 years; Fred Jackson, burglary, 2 years; M. Vargas, burglary, 2 years; Jim Reeder, burglary, 2 years; J. Levitas, forgery (two cases), 4 years; Frank House, burglary, 2 years; Fred Pierce, burglary, 2 years; Stanley Lucas, burglary, 2 years; Buck Bass, burglary, 5 years; A. Blake, theft over $50, 2 years. An application for a pardon for Blake has been signed by almost everybody instrumental in his conviction and sent to Governor Ferguson.

Working Boys' Club Enjoys Peach Feed at M. Falkner Farm

Several bushels of peaches were necessary to satisfy the hunger of 150 members of the Working Boys' Club last night when Mordis Falkner, assisted by his wife and mother, received them on the lawn of his house out on the Kellum road for a peach "feed." Forming at 8 o'clock they marched in a body out to the Falkner farm, where Mr. Falkner had a barrel of ice water in waiting for the thirty youngsters.

After they had quenched their thirst the boys were seated in a large circle. J. Mitchell Nash played a number of musical selections on his harp and guitar, employing both instruments at the same time. The music was well received. After the music the peaches were passed around and successive rounds of the big circle were made until the boys had eaten all they cared for and filled their pockets full. Then little Mary Alice Baker gave a recitation, the boys gave Mr. Falkner a unanimous vote of thanks for his hospitality and adjournment was had.

Corn Raised Wrong Shown in Window At the Old Corner

To kill a good crop of corn that is undesirable, the Old Corner drug store has put in an advertising window display showing the means by which this is done. The corn to be killed, however, is not the maize, but the more familiar to most people—the foot variety. In the window are a number of old shoes filled with soil and in which are growing sprigs of the green corn, with the interesting advice "Raise corn in fields, but not in your shoes." Roasting ears are also scattered over the floor. The remedy is, according to Dr. Morrison, to use Rexall Corn Solvent. The idea is unique and attracts a good deal of comment.

Important Matters Will Come Before Commission Today

Two important matters scheduled to come up before the city commission this afternoon are the moving van ordinance, which will be presented again by Secretary C. C. Lewis of the Retail Merchants' association and a proposal by John Dollins, street commissioner, that a sanitary sewer be constructed from the alley at Calhoun and Clay to Twentieth and Jackson streets. It is claimed that this short extension will serve almost seventy residences.

The proposition to have an ordinance passed requiring transfer men to report each family they move from one place to another came up once before and aroused considerable opposition. Letters have now been received from Austin and other cities where the same or similar ordinances are in effect, each of them stating that the law is proving beneficial.

In addition to the installation of the sewer mentioned above, Commissioner Dollins desires that his department be allowed to improve streets leading to schools in the Third and Sixth wards. It is probable that Mr. Dollins will make a report showing what the street department has been doing since he has been in charge of it.

Ten Day Trip Rates To be Discontinued

The regular ten-day round-trip fare between Texas points, giving 10 per cent discount will be discontinued after July 15, according to notices received by the local city ticket agents. Under the new schedule no discount will be given by purchasing the return ticket at the time of departure. This will not apply to the summer rates or to special excursions, but only to the regular ten-day limit rates that have been given for the past several years.

Billy Hammond is To be Movie Actor

Billy Hammond expects to leave Waco Sunday to join the Balboa Amusement Producing company, at Long Beach, Cal., as an actor for moving picture plays. Mr. Hammond is leaving his business here in charge of P. E. Flemister and Charles H. Babb, who will conduct it as usual. He will probably be at Long Beach about the middle of next month, for several months at least.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer

These days the face needs special care and attention. Flying dust and dirt, the beating sun, are severe on any skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure mercurized wax. This keeps skin and pores in a cleanly condition, the complexion beautifully white and spotless. Discolored, freckled and roughened cuticle are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to completely renovate a soiled complexion. It is used like cold cream, allowed to remain on the face over night, and washed off in the morning.

As the skin tends to expand in warm weather, causing wrinkles to form, a good astringent lotion should be used. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered salicylate in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this during the heat of the day or before going out for theatre or social affair. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle eraser.

Two Hundred More Books Wanted From Waco for Soldiers

Practically 300 volumes have been contributed, so far, to the Waco end of the soldiers' library which is being assembled through the agency of the Morning News, twenty-seven new books coming in yesterday. Of this number six were sent in by Miss Susie Jones and the remaining twenty-one came from a woman who requested that her name be withheld. The Morning News would be delighted if the Waco offering could be made 500 volumes, but for this aim to be realized it is useful that those who care to add to the movement shall make their contributions at once, as June 30 is the last day on which books are due to be received here.

This leaves only six more days for the contribution here to be completed. A few books from a number of persons would make up the remaining 200 books easily. Read-over books of fiction, short stories, travel, adventure, humor, a little of lighter history, and military tactics are especially desired. No new books are asked, the soldiers being content with volumes which the families have already completed reading. Due to the fact that no arrangement has been made by the government for handling magazines, they cannot be accepted.

Movements of this character furnish many of the soldiers on the frontier not only with the only reader matter they have—being far removed from book stores and libraries—but also the only wholesome diversion and entertainment, for saloons and cheap dancing halls are about the only sources of entertainment many of them have, according to the army officials who have approved the effort to send them books.

If you have any books to offer, please send them to this office today.

New Hotel Planned For Valley Mills

Valley Mills is to have a $10,000 modern hotel, one of the best for a town of its size anywhere, according to E. A. Tweedy Jr. of that place, who was here yesterday. The structure will be erected by J. B. Crow, owner of the frame hotel that burned there recently, and work on it will begin right away. It will be provided with all the comforts which mark the hotels of the cities and will be ample to care for the needs of the town for years to come, it is announced.

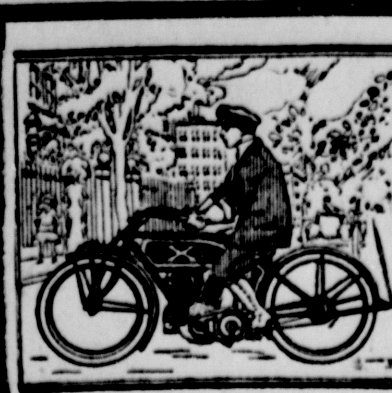

Chalk Bluff Picnic Takes Place Today

Many persons from Waco are planning to attend the annual W. O. W. picnic at Moore Springs, near Chalk Bluff, today. Dr. S. F. ... is scheduled to speak this morning. Judge Tom L. McCulloch is this afternoon and a ball game is planned for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Chilton Carnival Will Be Tomorrow

The Chilton carnival is scheduled for Saturday and it is probable that a number of Wacoans will be in attendance. An auto and vehicle parade is to be one of the features. There then will be a baby show, fat man, sack and slow mile races and a greased pole climbing contest for the boys. Agricultural exhibits have also been gathered for the occasion.

Notice to House Owners. Let us replace that leaking wood shingle roof with metal shingles. Stop the leaks and reduce the fire risk. No exposure of your goods while doing the work. Torbett & Germond Co., Fourteenth and Franklin Sts. Old phone 747, new phone 826.—Adv.

Bird Damage Case Decided Finally For the Plaintiff

Judge Erwin J. Clark of the Seventy-fourth district court, after Russell
H. Kinsbury were being congratulated yesterday on account of their finally winning the case of Mrs. Ruth Bird vs. the Texas Power and Light company, in which the second largest company in a damage action ever judgment in this county was obtained by given in the trial court. The supreme court refused to grant a writ of error in the case, the court of civil appeals already having affirmed the finding of the jury in the Nineteenth district court.

The plaintiff sought damages on account of the death of her husband, who was killed in an explosion at the Waco plant about three years ago.
The jury gave Mrs. Bird judgment for $15,000, the largest judgment aside from that having been one for $17,000, rendered a number of years ago. Accrued interest on the judgment has brought the amount almost up to the size of the other judgment now. Judge Clark was practicing at the Waco bar at the time the case was tried, but has been elevated to the bench since then.

TAKING TESTIMONY IN BIG LIBEL CASE

DR. G. B. FOSQUE INTRODUCES FOUR WITNESSES AND DEPO-SITION OF NEW YORKER.

Trial of Suit Against Amicable for $60,000 Damages Expected to Last Several Weeks.

Preliminaries having been finally disposed of, the trial of the famous libel suit of Dr. G. B. Fosque against the Amicable Life Insurance company was commenced in the Seventy-fourth district court yesterday. Judge Erwin Clark announced that court would begin at 9 o'clock each morning and adjourn at 4:30 each evening and warned all interested parties that the hours would be observed. One of the lawyers observed that it was "union time" and Judge Clark rejoined that it was and that "there will be no strikes tolerated."

The prosecution first introduced the deposition of Alfred M. Best, insurance expert of New York. Mr. Best stated that he had a letter from the secretary of the Amicable company, in which it was claimed that the high death rate was not due to lax medical examinations, but to typhoid fever, murders, suicides and such things that could not be avoided. Dr. Fosque is suing for $60,000 damages, claiming that he was damaged through the sending out of a letter, stating that he had not conducted physical examinations properly.

Dr. R. B. Turner, Dr. J. W. Hale,
Senator A. R. McCollum and John D.
Mayfield each testified that they had received a copy of the letter referred to in the plaintiff's petition. The cross examination of Mr. Mayfield was not reached last night, and it was announced that it would be taken up the first thing this morning.

It is expected that the trial will consume from six to eight weeks.

Mrs. T. J. Elliott Dies at Mt. Calm

Mt. Calm, Tex., June 24.—Mrs. T. J.
Elliott St., aged 82 years, mother of Mrs. W. T. McGrew and a pioneer settler of Mt. Calm, passed away at 10 a.
m. today.

When the Mt. Calm Baptist church was organized in 1876, Mrs. Elliott was one of the twenty-three members who entered into the organization and her death leaves but one survivor.

In addition to rearing seven children of her own, three of whom are dead, Mrs. Elliott reared three orphan children. She leaves four children, twenty-one grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. B. T. Goodwin at the Baptist church tomorrow at 3 p. m., after which the body will be laid to rest by the side of her husband and children in the Mt. Calm cemetery.

Good at Excuses.
Young Albert was a waiter at a small restaurant. One day he served a peppery old gentleman with an ice pudding. Albert was just retiring, when the old gentleman called him back.
"There's a fly in this ice pudding,"
he remarked coldly.
Albert saw it and immediately remembered his great motto.
"Well, let him stay, sir, and catch a chill," he said darkly. "The idiot was in a plate of soup a few minutes ago.
Does he take the place for a Turkish bath?"—New York Evening Journal.

Waco Creek Waters Will be Turned Into New Channel Today

Elaborate plans have been made for the turning the waters of Waco creek into new channels through the Cotton Palace grounds at 10 o'clock this morning. The directors of the association and representatives of the Waco papers will be present by special invitation, and it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance.
As soon as the waters have been turned in, W. G. McCrary, the contractor, will put a large force to work, filling up the old channel. It is planned to have a number of boats on the stream this year, as an added attraction, and two small lakes will be formed by the new arrangement.

Big Damages Asked for Death of Man Taken to Wrong Town

Twenty thousand dollars damages is asked by Martha Caroline Glenn et al from the Southern Traction company, on account of the death of J. J. Glenn, husband and father of the defendants,
last January, the suit having been filed yesterday in the Nineteenth district court. The petition recites that Mr.
Glenn drove in to Waco on a load of corn, was sick at the time, and boarded an interurban car for West. It is further alleged that he was put off at Abbott, instead of West, had to take a car back to West, and died the next day on account of the exposure.
